THE DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION SCHOLARSHIP

Created by The Development Corporation of Plattsburgh, New York, The Development Corporation Scholarship program provides an annual academic year scholarship in the amount of $5,000 for Individualized Studies majors focusing on Canadian Studies, Canadian Studies minors, or Québec Studies minors at the State University of New York College at Plattsburgh. This scholarship also applies should the scholar wish to participate in one of the Study in Canada programs administered by the SUNY system.

ELIGIBILITY
The applicant must:
- Be enrolled as a full-time undergraduate student at SUNY Plattsburgh
- Be an Individualized Studies Major, a Canadian Studies minor, or a Québec Studies Minor
- Have completed at least two semesters at the College
- Have successfully completed at least two Canadian Studies content courses
- Have a satisfactory GPA

APPLICATION PROCEDURE
The applicant must submit to the Center for the Study of Canada:
1) Completed application form
2) Typed essay of approximately two double-spaced pages indicating why the applicant is personally interested in Canada, why it is important for U.S. citizens to be well-informed about Canada and its people, and how the study of Canada will benefit the applicant during his/her undergraduate education and career
3) At least one letter of recommendation from a Canadian Studies professor at SUNY Plattsburgh

CONDITIONS
Preference for The Development Corporation Scholarship will be given to residents of the North Country (northern New York.) In order to receive his or her scholarship, the recipient must maintain a successful academic performance and enroll in at least one Canadian Studies content course each semester. The scholarship award may be renewed provided the student remains in good academic standing. It is also expected that the award winner become actively involved in the academic and cultural programs organized by the Center, such as field trips to Canadian cities, and on-campus presentations by visiting speakers, and other meetings, as requested. In addition, a letter of appreciation must be sent to the donor and a copy sent to the Center for the Study of Canada. It is the joint expectation of the Center and the scholarship donor that the recipients will conduct themselves in a manner consistent with high academic standards including a professional demeanor in the classroom setting. Recipients of this award are expected to participate in the annual Arts & Sciences Academic Achievement Awards Ceremony held on-campus, which recognizes scholarship awardees at SUNY Plattsburgh.

NOTE: Other scholarships offered to Individualized Studies majors, Canadian Studies minors, and Québec Studies minors cannot be combined with The Development Corporation Scholarship, except in special circumstances, as approved by the Director of the Center for the Study of Canada.

RICHARD BEACH SOCIETY for CANADIAN ART

Award for Student enrolled in Canadian Art
Donated in honor of Richard Beach by Lucienne Glaubinger

In recognition of Richard Beach’s enormous contributions to Canadian Studies and his personal commitment to and interest in Canadian Art, a special award of up to $250 has been established through the Plattsburgh College Foundation. This award goes to an Individualized Studies major or a Canadian Studies minor enrolled in a Canadian Art class.

ELIGIBILITY
The applicant must:

- Be an Individualized Studies major or a Canadian Studies minor enrolled in a Canadian Art class at SUNY Plattsburgh
- Have a satisfactory GPA

NOMINATION PROCEDURE
Faculty teaching Canadian Art classes at SUNY Plattsburgh will nominate appropriate candidates to the Center for the Study of Canada.

CONDITIONS
In order to receive this award, the recipient must maintain a successful academic performance and be enrolled in at least one Canadian Art course. The award winner will author a letter of appreciation to the donor and send a copy to the Center for the Study of Canada. It is the joint expectation of the Center for the Study of Canada and the award donor that the recipients will conduct themselves in a manner consistent with high academic standards including a professional demeanor in the classroom setting. Recipients of this award are expected to participate in the annual Arts & Sciences Academic Achievement Awards Ceremony held on-campus, which recognizes scholarship awardees at SUNY Plattsburgh.

NOMINATION DEADLINE
Nominations are considered on an individual basis and may be submitted to the Center for the Study of Canada at any time during or after the semester in which the student has enrolled in a Canadian Art class at SUNY Plattsburgh. The award will be made at the conclusion of the semester, upon evidence of the student’s successful completion of the Canadian Art course.
SITA RAM AND JAI DEVI GANDHI AWARD PROGRAM

Created by Dr. Prem and Mrs. Aruna Gandhi, the Sita Ram and Jai Devi Gandhi Award program provides an annual scholarly award of $150 for a graduating senior student who is currently enrolled in and will successfully complete a major in International Business and a minor in Canadian Studies.

ELIGIBILITY
The applicant must:

- Currently be a full-time graduating senior at State University of New York College at Plattsburgh
- Be enrolled as a major in International Business and a minor in Canadian Studies
- Have a satisfactory GPA
- Preference will be given to applicants who either have undertaken a study abroad opportunity in Canada or have completed an internship with a company directly engaged with Canadian-U.S. business relations

NOMINATION PROCEDURE
The successful student will be selected from a list of graduating seniors who are officially enrolled at Plattsburgh as an International Business and a Canadian Studies minor. The selection will be made by a review committee of at least three members including the Director of the Center for the Study of Canada, the Chair of the International Business Department, and the Coordinator of the Canadian Studies minor. Supporting documents such as letters of recommendation from the faculty and/or from the supervisor of internship will be solicited and appreciated. The selected student will be recognized for the award at the annual award ceremonies of the Division of Arts and Sciences and the School of Business and Economics. If no award is given in a particular year, the award will be rolled over to the next academic year. A letter of appreciation must be sent to the donor, Dr. Prem and Mrs. Aruna Gandhi, and a copy sent to the Center for the Study of Canada. Recipients of this award are expected to participate in the annual Arts & Sciences Academic Achievement Awards Ceremony held on-campus, which recognizes scholarship awardees at SUNY Plattsburgh.
