Biographical Information

The Society of the Second War with Great Britain in the State of New York is a hereditary organization. To belong, one must be a lineal descendant of a person who served in the army, navy, revenue-marine, or privateer service of the United States during the War of 1812. This state society was organized and incorporated in 1896 and admitted to the General Society of the War of 1812 in 1897. All members of the state society are automatically admitted to the General Society. In 1900, a judicial order was made changing the name of “The Society of the War of 1812 in the State of New York” to “The Society of the Second War with Great Britain in the State of New York.”

Many of the materials in this collection pertained directly to or came from the files of Henry Harmon Noble. In 1895 Noble became a member of the General Society of the War of 1812 and was one of the incorporators of the New York Society in 1896. He later became the Secretary of the New York Society in 1901. Noble also served as the Assistant Secretary General of the General Society beginning in 1905.

Born in Essex, New York to Harmon and Laura Ann (Welch) Noble in 1861, Henry Harmon Noble became a historian of the Revolutionary War and the War of 1812 periods, contributing many papers to the press and editing many publications on New York history. Noble held multiple positions and was a member of a variety of historical societies, including the New York State Historical Association. Noble joined the Customs Service as a special agent of the Treasury Department in 1904, and was stationed throughout New York and Vermont. During Noble’s time in the Customs Service, Governors Hughes and Sulzer appointed him to serve on the Perry’s Victory and Battle of Plattsburgh Centennial Commissions. Noble died on November 27, 1934 (quote).

Scope of the Collection

This collection contains three series of information regarding Societies of the War of 1812.

Series 1: The Society of the Second War with Great Britain in the State of New York (also referred to as The Society of the War of 1812 in the State of New York)

The first series specifically contains materials related to the Society of the War of 1812 in the State of New York during the first four decades of the 20th century, including materials from the files of Henry Harmon Noble. Also included in this series are materials regarding the Lawsuit and the Supreme Court Case between the General Society of the War of 1812 and the Society of the War of 1812 in the State of New York.

Box 1 of this collection holds materials relating to the Society of the Second War with Great Britain in the State of New York, including a minute book and multiple publications of the Society regarding Officer and Member information, as well as the constitution, regulations and rosters. Also included in Box 1 are newspaper clippings regarding the Society, membership slips and information including informal rosters, and brochures for the Bicentennial commemoration and rededication of the Bouquet River Battle Monument. In addition, Ten Days Notices, which were sent to the members of the executive committee of the Society ten days prior to a meeting, are in folder 6. These notices list the names, occupations, and addresses of applicants for admission as well as the name and service record of the ancestor through whose service in the War of 1812 they seek admission.

Box 2 contains materials on the Lawsuit and Supreme Court Case between the General Society of the War of 1812 and the Society of the War of 1812 in the State of New York, including Papers on Appeal from Order and correspondence between H.K. Averill, Jr., H.H. Noble, Asa Bird Gardiner, and Appleton Morgan. Box 2 also contains Henry Harmon Noble’s family history and personal photographs, notes and papers found in his desk and files, and documents and correspondence regarding the transfer of his materials with the New York State Historical Association.

Box 3 contains correspondence primarily involved with Henry Harmon Noble’s official duties, including the completing of applications, issuing insignia and other proof of membership, as well as calling the membership to meetings.

Mr. Noble maintained files on many of the members of the Society of the War of 1812 in the State of New York. These files include correspondence concerning the member’s family or ancestry, clippings from a large number of newspapers and journals, and handwritten notes. Housed in Boxes 4 and 5, the member’s files are arranged alphabetically by surname. Each file may contain information on more than one person. As an example, the Baker file holds materials on members George Comstock Baker (1865-1908) and Laurence C. Baker, their father and grandfather who were not members, as well as their War of 1812 ancestor, Peter Comstock. This file also contains information on other Society members surnamed Baker who do not appear to be related.

Series 2: The General Society of the War of 1812

This series includes publications of the General Society of the War of 1812 from 1893 to 1925 and documents of the society, including pamphlets with information on General Officers, State Presidents, and Secretaries, extracts from the constitution, and a Military Order for ceremonies in memory of Captain Joseph Lametti in 1930.

Series 3: Societies of the War of 1812 in Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Maryland and the District of Columbia

Folders 1-4 contain 1894 and 1895 meeting minutes and 1906 to 1923 proceedings of the Society of the War of 1812 in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. Folder 5 contains information on officers, lists of members, rules, and a historic summary of the Society of the War of 1812 in the District of Columbia. Folder 6 contains similar information about the Society of the War of 1812 in the state of New Jersey, along with a pledge to the flag by Austin Smith. Folder 7 houses an Address of Francis Scott Key regarding the Maryland Society of the War of 1812.

Series 4: Seals of the Society

Box 1 holds eight seals of the General Society of the War of 1812 and the Society of the War of 1812 in the State of New York.
