10. Feinberg Library

Continue down the walkway to Feinberg Library. Enter at the far left corner of the building. The Reference Room and computers for accessing the electronic library catalogue are on your right.

Resources in Feinberg Library
- Reference & electronic search areas.
- Full-text scholarly journal databases.
- Over 300,000 books and 1,400 periodicals.

Rockwell Kent Gallery
Down the hallway and past the Reference Room is the Rockwell Kent Gallery. If open, feel free to go right into the gallery. The Rockwell Kent Gallery at SUNY Plattsburgh contains the most complete collection of Kent’s work in the United States.

Claude J. Clark Learning Center
Go back out into the library lobby and head downstairs and enter the Learning Center on your right. The Learning Center features:
- Free tutoring in 200 courses per semester.
- Writing lab and writing tutors.
- Open 24 hours during finals week.

Feinberg Computer Lab and Extended Computer Labs
Leaving the Learning Center, the Feinberg Computer Lab is on your right. The lab was renovated in 2011 with new furniture and spaces designed to accommodate multiple styles of working and studying. It is equipped with more than 100 PC workstations, all with high-speed Internet. Many are loaded with discipline-specific software in addition to standard productivity programs like Microsoft Office.
- Open 12-16 hours daily, open 24 hours during finals week.
- Black and white laser printing.
- Small fee for other printing services.
- Mac lab.
- KIC machine for scanning, saving and emailing documents.

11. Angell College Center

Leave the Computer Lab and walk down the hall to the right into Angell College Center — you will pass the services below.

Student Support Services
The office on your left provides academic services for first-generation, modest-income, or disabled students.

Educational Opportunity Program Office
The Educational Opportunity Program is a support program for students from financially disadvantaged families. EOP students who also meet academic guidelines benefit from advisers, tutors and financial assistance to help them succeed.

Angell College Center Information Desk
Continue walking through the Angell College Center and the College Center Desk will be on your right. The College Center Desk offers:
- Discount tickets for area events and attractions.
- Postage stamps and off-campus mailing.
- Burghy DVD and Video Den.

Student Activities and Volunteerism
Ahead of you is the Student Activities and Volunteerism office. Opportunities include:
- Project HELP — volunteer at local schools, soup kitchens, nursing homes, and roadside cleanups.
- Alternative Breaks Program — gain service experience during both winter and spring breaks.
- Community Service Scholarship.

Campus Express
On your left is Campus Express, a convenience store with snacks, beverages, newspapers, magazines and health and beauty aids.

Greek Life — Fraternities & Sororities
Membership is about 12 percent of our student population.

Our fraternities and sororities logged over 10,000 community service hours and raised $62,000 for charities last year.

The Office of Fraternity and Sorority Life (2nd floor of the Angell College Center) sponsors Up ‘Til Dawn, an annual fundraising event which has raised $27,000 for St. Jude’s Children’s Hospital.

Student Association, 2nd Floor
The College Center is also home to our student government — the Student Association. The Student Association provides:
- Free shuttle service around the city of Plattsburgh.
- Discounted buses home for holidays.
- Sponsored trips to Burlington, Montreal and New York City.
- Sunday night movies.
- Weekly ski trips.
- On-campus concerts.

Places to Eat in Angell College Center
- Griddles serves breakfast all day.
- Tim Hortons serves coffee, sandwiches and baked goods.
- Subway serves sandwiches made to order.
- Sundowner Cafe serves salads, sandwiches, baked goods, grilled food, pasta and pizza.
- Get fruit, vegetables and more at Green Grocer.
12. Champlain Valley Hall

Return to the first floor and exit through the doors to the right of the Sundowner Café. Go through the courtyard and up the short flight of stairs. Champlain Valley Hall is in front of you. The oldest building on our campus, this was once the nurses’ residence for Champlain Valley hospital.

Academic Programs in Champlain Valley Hall
- English
- Modern Languages & Cultures
- History
- Philosophy

13. Residence Halls

Continue down Rugar Street to Whiteface Hall. Whiteface and Wilson Halls are exclusive first-year student residence buildings. Each building houses 240 first-year students — about half of our incoming class. The demand for this housing far exceeds the number of available rooms.

Why? These residence halls have resources specific to first-year students and staff who are specially trained to assist with the transition to college life. The Residence Director of each building is a member of the college’s professional staff, while the Resident Assistants have volunteered for these buildings. Unique to these buildings are Community Advocates, upper classmen on each floor who serve as role models, guides and as a source of social support throughout the year.

Residence Hall Resources and Facilities (All Residence Halls)
- 12 residence halls to choose from on campus — all co-ed, all non-smoking.
- Phone system (voicemail for each student, unlimited local calling, enhanced 911 which enables emergency services to pin point the correct room if needed, and 400 free long-distance minutes per month).
- Wireless Internet connections and high-speed ports.
- Bed, desk, chair and dresser for each student.
- Triple dorm rooms come with: lofted or bunk beds and three desks, chairs and dressers.
- Rooms have keyless combination locks, and halls are accessed with proximity cards.
- Resident Assistants on each floor and a Residence Director in each hall.
- Laundry facilities in each hall with a $39 fee for unlimited washer and dryer use.
- Kitchenettes in each hall with a microwave, range/conventional oven and refrigerator.
- One mini-refrigerator per room is allowed. Cooking must be done in the kitchenettes.

Off-Campus Housing

Many students who move off campus live within walking distance of the college, but they must live on campus for their first two years (four semesters). The college does not own any off-campus housing, but listings are available in the Housing & Residence Life Office.
14. Algonquin Dining Hall

Algonquin Dining Hall is the next building on your right. It is one of two main dining halls. Algonquin has become the “green hub” on campus, offering organic and locally grown produce as well as biodegradable take-out packaging.

Hours are 11 a.m. to 8 p.m., Monday through Friday.

Little Al’s Takeout offers the Algonquin Hall menu for diners on the run. Hours are 11 a.m. to 8 p.m., Monday through Friday.

15. Clinton Dining Hall

Cross Rugar Street at the crosswalk. Clinton Dining Hall is down the long sidewalk between Mason Hall and Hood Hall. Enter through the main doors and go downstairs — just let the attendant know you are on a self-guided campus tour.

Clinton Dining Hall features several display-cooking areas including a crêpe station and a pasta stir fry station.

Clinton offers continuous service from 7 a.m. to 9 p.m., Monday through Friday, and from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. on Saturdays and Sundays. They provide hot breakfast and full brunch and dinner for students. Meal card, cash or debit accounts allow entrance and unlimited portions. Each platform will have a different option every day.

16. Sibley Hall

Exit Clinton and return to Rugar Street. Turn left and follow Rugar Street to Sibley Hall, on your left. Enter through the main doors.

Academic Programs in Sibley Hall

- Adolescence (Secondary) Education
- Childhood (Elementary) Education
- Communication Disorders & Sciences
- Teaching and Learning
- Educational Leadership
- Hotel, Restaurant, and Tourism Management
- Literacy Education
- Special Education

Resources and Facilities

- Alzheimer’s Disease Assistance Center
- Child Care Center (infant through pre-k education)
- North Country Teacher Resource Center
- Speech and Hearing Clinic

Samuel D’s

Samuel D’s is the hands-on laboratory for the Hotel, Restaurant, and Tourism Management program. The restaurant serves dinner on Thursdays. The coffee shop is open weekdays from 7:45 to 10:45 a.m. Reservations are required for dinner; please call (518) 564-4260.

Blue Light Phones

The “Blue Light” telephones, located throughout the campus, and emergency phones in the vestibules of the academic buildings are all linked to the campus communications system.

When a call is made from a “Blue Light” phone, police or emergency personnel are dispatched immediately to the location where the call originated.
17. Saranac Hall

As you walk down the sidewalk, you will pass Mason and Kent residence halls. After Macomb Residence Hall, the next building on your right will be Saranac Hall.

College Store
Enter the College Store on the main (street) level. The store offers texts and materials for courses, SUNY Plattsburgh T-shirts, sweatshirts, gifts and more. Hours are 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. weekdays and noon to 4 p.m. on Saturdays.

18. Student Health Center

Exit the store, go down the stairs and past the telecommunications office. The Student Health Center is directly in front of you.
The center provides women’s health services, psychological services, a walk-in clinic, allergy injections and nutritional advice to students on weekdays. Students needing urgent care on nights and weekends can go to Plattsburgh’s Champlain Valley Physician’s Hospital just one block from campus.

19. University Police

To the left of the Student Health Center is the University Police Department. The main entrance is on the far left side of the building.
University Police patrols the campus 24 hours a day. It also provides instruction in self-defense, escort to and from campus buildings and enforcement of student codes of conduct.

20. Memorial Hall

Follow the parking lot outside the University Police Department back to Rugar Street. Memorial Hall is the next building on your right. Enter through the main doors facing the street.

Athletics in Memorial Hall
- NCAA Division III sports (Go Cardinals!)
- Intramurals (70 percent of our students are involved)
- Gymnasium
- Indoor pool
- Indoor rock climbing wall
- Recreational sports
- Racquet ball
- Rock Climbing
- Sports clubs

Fitness Center
Go through the doors to the left of the main entrance and down two flights of stairs to the Fitness Center. Membership benefits for just $70 per semester are:
- Equipment includes cardiovascular machines, free weights and circuit weights.
- Personal trainers, nutritional analysis and fitness assessments.
- Over 50 group classes each week, including aerobics, spinning, kickboxing and yoga.
Myers Fine Arts Building

Cross Rugar Street at the crosswalk. Myers Fine Arts Building will be in front of you on the left. Enter Myers through the doors facing the parking lot. Inside Myers, you will find:

Academic Programs in Myers Fine Arts Building
- Art
- Music
- Theatre

Resources and Facilities
- Hartman Theatre
- MIDI Lab and Audio Technology
- Music Practice & Rehearsal Rooms
- Myers Lobby Gallery (student exhibits)

Burke Gallery
Go upstairs to the Burke Gallery. If open, go right into the gallery. This gallery hosts about seven exhibits per year and has several special collections.

Regina Slatkin Study Room
The study room houses a glass collection and allows students to study other pieces in the collection close up, including antiquities, tribal arts and Asian works, as well as early modernist works by Rodin, Bonnard and Cézanne.

Plattsburgh State Art Museum
Our art museum’s collection includes over 10,000 works of art from antiquities to modern pieces. The collection is displayed not only in the museum’s galleries but all over campus through the Museum Without Walls program.

Nina Winkel Sculpture Court
Enter the Nina Winkel Sculpture Court either through the back doors of the Burke Gallery or by passing the Slatkin Room and following the hallway to your left. Nina Winkel used terracotta, stone, bronze and copper to create works in themes ranging from mythology to the Bible, World War II and her life experiences.
- The sculpture court displays 45 years of artistry by the late Nina Winkel.
- The last piece of art she finished hangs on the far wall.
- It is the largest space in the country dedicated solely to the art of one woman.

Exit through the back doors of Nina Winkel by the Art Office, go out onto the walkway, and enter Kehoe on your right.

We hope that you enjoyed this tour and discovered many unique and interesting things at SUNY Plattsburgh. We welcome you to stop by the Admissions Office before you leave.
